Now I'm going to read you some statements from those who support Judge Garland's nomination and believe the U.S. Senate should hold confirmation hearings and a vote. For each statement, please tell me whether it is a very convincing, somewhat convincing, a little convincing, or not at all convincing reason to SUPPORT confirmation hearings and a vote on Judge Garland's nomination.

27 The President has a Constitutional duty to nominate a qualified nominee to fill any vacant seat on the Supreme Court, and the U.S. Senate has a Constitutional duty to offer its advice and consent. The President has done his job, now the Senate should do theirs.	46	20	8	25	1	66	33
28 Merrick Garland has the most extensive judicial experience of any recent Supreme Court nominee.	26	31	14	26	3	57	40
29 Merrick Garland has a proven record as a prosecutor and led the effort to bring the Oklahoma City bombers to justice.	24	38	11	26	3	61	36
30 Merrick Garland is a moderate judge who has been confirmed previously by both Democrats and Republicans.	25	34	13	25	3	59	38
31 (SPLIT A) Those opposed to granting Judge Garland a fair hearing and a confirmation vote have never accepted that President Obama was elected twice by the American people, and they are disrespecting him and the office of the President. If this were a different President, they would never behave in this manner.	27	18	11	43	2	45	53
32 (SPLIT B) By leaving the Supreme Court with a 4-to-4 split, opponents of the President have created a Constitutional crisis that leaves the Court in limbo and threatens important rulings on issues from women's rights and voting access to climate change and immigration reform.	29	25	12	34	1	54	45

	Very Conv	Smwt Conv	A Little Conv	Not At all Conv	DK/ Ref	Very/ Smwt Conv	Little/ Not Conv
33 (SPLIT A) The refusal to grant Judge Garland a fair hearing and a confirmation vote is just another example of Senate Republicans obstructing the President, putting their partisan goals ahead of the country as a whole and blocking him from doing his Constitutional duty.	37	19	9	33	2	56	41
34 (SPLIT B) Senators opposed to the President's Supreme Court nominee aren't acting on principle. They are simply doing the bidding of the big corporations and special interests like the National Rifle Association that fund their campaigns.	16	29	13	41	1	45	54

[250 Respondents in splits C and D]

Now I'm going to read you some statements from those who believe the U.S. Senate should NOT hold confirmation hearings or a vote on Judge Garland's nomination. For each statement, please tell me whether it is a very convincing, somewhat convincing, a little convincing, or not at all convincing reason to OPPOSE any confirmation hearings or a vote on Judge Garland's nomination.

35 (SPLIT C) Since this is an election year, we should wait until we know who the next president will be before filling an important vacancy to the U.S. Supreme Court, so that voters can have their voices heard on this decision.	32	18	5	44	1	50	49
36 (SPLIT D) President Obama is in his final months of office and should not make a decision that will alter the course of the Supreme Court for years to come.	28	17	5	49	1	45	55
37 Since the Supreme Court is now split evenly between four liberal and four conservative justices, it is important to let voters make the final decision in the upcoming election about the ideological direction of the Court.	32	24	11	32	1	56	43
38 (SPLIT C) Justice Antonin Scalia was an important conservative voice on the Court and should not be replaced by someone who will shift the Court in a more liberal direction.	26	19	11	44	1	44	55

39 (SPLIT D) Justice Antonin Scalia was an important conservative voice on the Court and should not have his replacement chosen by a liberal President.....	17	16	7	58	2	33	65
40 (SPLIT C) President Obama says that Judge Garland is a moderate judge, but he will ultimately vote with the liberal justices to write laws from the bench, threatening our rights and giving the government too much power over our lives.....	21	26	10	41	2	47	52
41 (SPLIT D) Any Senator who goes forward with a hearing and vote for President Obama's nominee to the Court is ignoring the will of the people and should be challenged in upcoming primaries.....	17	21	14	47	0	38	62
42 (SPLIT C) The Obama administration is being hypocritical. When Vice President Joe Biden was in the Senate, he argued the same thing Republicans are saying today - no hearings or vote on Supreme Court nominees until after upcoming elections.	21	32	11	34	2	53	45
43 (SPLIT D) Given the importance of this vacancy, we should wait to see the results of the November elections. If the President's party wins, then the Senate should consider moving forward with hearings and a vote for Judge Garland. (ref:BASICCON)	17	27	7	47	1	44	55
