Now, you will see a series of issues facing every community across America to some extent. Please indicate on a scale from 0 to 10 what role you think government should play in meeting the need on each of these issues, where 10 means it is a basic human right that should be guaranteed to everyone in the U.S. and 0 means it is an issue that government should not be involved in at all and should be left completely to the free market. You can choose any number between 0 and 10.
